

Cooperation Protocol between the National Council and the European Union

11 December 2022

This protocol marks the launch of the project to support the National Council for Human Rights in collaboration with the European Union. The project aims to improve efficiency and enhance the capabilities of the Council in the field of human rights, strengthen partnerships with civil society, and establish strategic collaborations in the human rights domain.