

Cooperation Protocol between the National Council and the World Council for Tolerance and Peace

19 February 2023

The objective of this protocol is to enhance cooperation between the two parties in order to achieve peace and promote the values of tolerance and human rights. The partnership seeks to protect human rights and spread values of tolerance and brotherhood among nations. The protocol also aims to:

- Promote human rights culture
- Enhance tolerance and peace culture through the development of human rights curricula for schoolchildren, teaching them tolerance, human rights, and ways to coexist with others
- Provide training for workers in the public and private sectors to ensure prevention and foster connections between communities to advance human rights and uphold values of tolerance and peace.
